Colorado Employer Designated Provider List for Workers' Compensation (part 2)

What This Means to Counties

In June of 2014 House Bill 14-1383 was signed. This Workers' Compensation amendment increased the number of designated providers that an employer must provide to the injured employee to four. There are exceptions based on availability of physicians in some locales. We request that you edit your designated provider lists. Please also provide CTSI with a copy of your revised list.

For more information, contact CTSI at 303-861-0507.

\ If physicians or corporate medical providers at the same location or with common ownership are listed, those providers, within 5 days of the written request by an interested party to the workers' compensation claim, must provide a list of ownership interests/employment relationships to the interested party.*

Employer Provider List for Workers Compensation Claims

This list of providers contains many of the hospitals and clinics utilized for WC cases over the last year or more and may contain other specialties. It is not a complete list of every provider. Hospitals should be utilized for emergency situations only when the clinic is closed or the injury is severe. Some of the clinics may have changed location or doctors. Those in RED may be primary care providers.

As you prepare to increase your list per the new Division of Workers Compensation requirements, we recommend that you do your own research to determine if you have enough of the required providers in your area. The list we have provided is a starting place only. You may find others that you prefer for your WC designated provider list. Be sure to contact the facility to determine if they handle workers' compensation claims and can meet the needs of you and your employees.

Employer Provider List for Workers Compensation Claims

This list of providers contains many of the hospitals and clinics utilized for WC cases over the last year or more and may contain other specialties. It is not a complete list of every provider. Hospitals should be utilized for emergency situations only when the clinic is closed or the injury is severe. Some of the clinics may have changed location or doctors. Those in RED may be primary care providers.

As you prepare to increase your list per the new Division of Workers Compensation requirements, we recommend that you do your own research to determine if you have enough of the required providers in your area. The list we have provided is a starting place only. You may find others that you prefer for your WC designated provider list. Be sure to contact the facility to determine if they handle workers' compensation claims and can meet the needs of you and your employees.
