
Welcome Dana Mumey CTSI Senior Human Resource Specialist

Dana Mumey
CTSI Senior Human Resource Specialist

Please join us in welcoming our new Senior Human Resource Specialist, Dana Mumey. Dana replaces Cynthia Barnes who was with CTSI for more than 16 years. We wish Cynthia well in her future endeavors.

Dana, with more than 28 years of extensive legal, employment law and human resource experience will provide loss prevention and human resource management services to our pool membership.

Dana's professional background includes working as an attorney for Adams County and the City of Aurora. She served as Associate General Counsel for the Regional Transportation District (RTD), and was responsible for spearheading a successful consent decree settlement between the disabled community and RTD. As a former Employee and Labor Relations Manager for a flight services and training company, Dana has been responsible for management training, Human Resource Best Practices, union negotiations and grievances, workplace harassment investigations and disciplinary action.

Dana possesses a law degree from the University of Puget Sound School of Law (now known as Seattle University School of Law), and a BA in Mass Communications and Theatre with Minors in English, Political Science and Sociology from Gustavus Adolphus College.

We are confident that Dana will be a strong asset to CTSI and the pool membership. Feel free to contact Dana at (303) 861-0507, ext. 122 or email dmumey@ctsi.org
