

TECHNICAL UPDATE

Volume 29 Number 7 | February 18, 2025

Who's Who at CTSI

CTSI is much more than insurance. We are county-owned and operated, assisting most Colorado counties and other government agencies. As a membership organization, CTSI is committed to providing high-quality risk management and loss control services as well as employee training and education, human resources, and other value-added services, such as management and regulatory consulting. At the core of CTSI is our mission statement, which guides our team's every endeavor and underscores our shared vision.

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide counties with alternative risk management and other technical services that are progressive, competitive, and cost-effective.
